Positive business momentum despite unfavourable currency effects

For the 2018 first quarter, the Group reported revenue of €66.6 million at constant exchange rates, up 3.3% from last year's same period. The currency effect that was positive in the 2017 first-quarter was reversed in this year's first quarter with a negative currency effect of €9.4 million.

On a reported basis, first-quarter revenue was €57.2 million.

Growth in the period was largely driven by Mauritania, Kazakhstan, Russia, Mongolia and DR of Congo.

Outlook

A number of indicators confirm an improving global economic environment, and in particular, the upturn in commodity and energy prices.

The strong business dynamic focussed on Major Projects and fast-growing regions combined with the quality of the business pipeline should provide CIS with a more favourable environment overall.

About CIS

CIS is specialised in the management of remote sites in extreme environments, onshore and offshore. As a services integrator, the Group has developed a comprehensive service offering (catering and living accommodations, facility management and support services) that allows it to provide customers with turnkey solutions. Present in more than 20 countries with 180 operating sites and a worldwide staff today numbering nearly 11,000, CIS has a strong commitment to contributing to the economic and social development of the local populations and countries where it operates.
