Steady sales and continuation of very strong business momentum that began at the end of 2018 were seen in Q1 2019.

The Group reported in Q1 2019 a revenue of €57.0 million compared to €57.2 million in the same period in 2018. This includes positive foreign exchange effects in the amount of €0.3 million and the non-renewal of a contract in Algeria in H2 2018 representing a sales volume of €6.0 million in Q1 2018.

Excluding this base effect, and reflecting the excellent business momentum in Africa and Eurasia, revenue grew 10.3%.

Outlook

After creating two new subsidiaries in 2018 in the Bahamas and Malawi, CIS continues its expansion by launching operations in Senegal. The addition of this new country strengthens the Group's leadership in sub-Saharan Africa.

Based on these positive developments, CIS maintains its path of growth in FY 2019.

About CIS
